IN The GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS

PRINTING OFFICE.

tives in Chicago on the return journey, at his old home in Lewiston, Me. and will take thirty days' additional leave of absence.

ceiving the congratulations of fellow-Bowles, the wedding ceremony being years, resigned her position two weeks their residence at 224 9th street ert Spankler and Theodore Wilson.

wife and daughter of Ellis G. Myers of Myers, who has been ill for several months, is reported improving.

been appointed senior vice consul at Dresden, Saxony. Mr. Waters is but twenty-four years of age, and is one youngest appointees to this

John W. Clark of the proofroom has shape of a bound volume of "Our Com-posing Stick," a publication which was number of articles setting forth the Columbia Union, and matters of especial interest to the craft. The editors Marston and George E.

Miss Joseph A. Lange of the proof vacation in Baltimore, as indicated by vecation is spending part of her and Mrs. F. C. Roberts, was indicated by man, Mr. and Mrs. W. I

C. S. ("Jerry") Dennison of the document (hand) section, left Monday for a month's vacation, which he will spend Columbia Typograph al Union for the past six years, died at his home in this city last Tuesday after an illness of Joseph I. Colliere and Harry Tho was born in Denmark November 9. Some time after completing his Mrs. Pauline Green of the in the city of Copenhagen he sion and relatives will spen came to this country, joining Typo-graphical Union, No. 6, and lived and worked in New York city for several During the absence of several of years, also residing and following the editors in the proofroom H. B. Barnrinting business for a while in Albany Since coming to Washington in 1998 he had been employed in the monotype beyboard section of the government printing office, and during his long ill-ness the members of that chapel showed in substantial manner their respect and due to illness, regard for him. Mr. Lund is survived by his widow and three children—a John W. Sher were held at the home Thursday morning, the monotype keyboard chapel sending a delegation of its members in of other fellow-craftsmen and friends in Albany Mr. Vogel attended the sessions of the New York constitutional in Idaho, for a visit to t convention, in which a matter of much interest to him and many others whose be gone a month or more. employment keep them out of the state most of the year is being considered—a proposed amendment to the constitution permitting voters to register withou being present in the county where the intend to vote. He states that the at titude of the members of the convention is so, favorable to this reform that it is more than likely that it will be ing.

Mrs. J. D. Ligon and Mrs. W. Edgar Howser, wife and daughter of Proof-reader J. D. Ligon, left Tuesday for Atlantic City, where they will visit

Thomas A. Dougherty, maker-up in the document (hand) section, who has tion been asent for the past four months the on account of illness, paid the office a visit Wednesday, and will report for

Richard M. Calhoun, Samuel D. Hov Christian Keiner and Emanuel M. Castle of the watch force have been of Charles F. Purdy of the monotyp their son, left Monday for an a mobile trip through New Jersey

Copy Editor H. W. Whittaker and Max J. Knoble of the proof-motored to the upper Potomac on a fishing trip the first of the week. division, with a party of friends, will visit the Panama-Pacific exposition

E. F. Kelly has been on the sick reof the engineers' section the past making and stamping section of the bindery, is spending a month's vac-

J. W. Mathers, maker-up on the "X. locument (hand) section, has taken hi document (hand) section, has taken his family to Wilkinsons, Md., for a three-and Mrs. Fisher left Thursday for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will visit enjoying with two sons, who are engaged in business in that city. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will make an extended stay on Fisher, who has been a member of the tional Typographical Union convention, which will begin August 9.

Charles H. Williams and James R. Tate of the sanitary section have been absent from duty the past week, due to ast Sunday and was buried Tuesday. Funeral services were held at the rest dence, and interment was in Rock weeks leave of Creek cemetery. Mr. Crews was employed in the government printing of-fice for many years, and made many (hand) section, who is spending a two- rious points in Pennsylvania. week vacation at Atlantic City, is keeping his friends in the office posted proofroom has been granted a month's leave, and has been making short visits graphical Union at Los Angeles, Cal. in New York city, Fall River, Mass.; division Mr. McDonough will visit with retatives in Chicago on the return journey. Spend the greater part of his vacation weeks.

ons section is spending three isiting in Baltimore and vicinity.

Howard A

board section left yesterday for New panied him. George Burklin of the proofroom to Chesapeake Beach, Md.

Tomlinson were the business man- Ham C. Connor, chairman of the com-McCardell, Mrs. Bettie Tanner and Miss Regan, helper, $870 per annum, to stockkeeper, $900 per annum, office of Wallace Brewer of the document stockkeeper, $900 per annum (hand) section and family are at At-superintendent of documents. lantic City for a two-week vacation.

son of the engineers' section began

Mrs. Pauline Green of the press divi-During the absence of several of the steamer Eastland.

hart Marsh A Rodenhamer and Charles Stutsman have been detailed as copy ing Columbia Typographical Union at the I. T. U. convention to be held in Los Angeles, Cal., was presented with chapel a cane Wednesday by his fellow workers in the specifications chapel. Chaian official capacity, besides a number man John E. Hogan made the presentation speech in behalf of the chapel stead at Albany, N. Y., where Mr. Vo. gel's father, Andrew, is very ill. While at his old home, Columbia Mo. in Idaho, for a visit to the Panama Pacific exposition. Mr. McCardell

> Benjamin F. Dorsey of the electrical began his annual vacation

> John T. Finnegan of the press division, who has been ill for several Wilfred E. Garlick of the documen (hand) section has been granted two weeks' leave of absence and has gone to New York city with his family ton Union Printers' Athletic Associafinished its series of games in Departmental League last week announcement will shortly made of the standing of the various ing a series of two games a week with amateur teams in nearby cities to keep the printers in training for the will open in Philadelphia August t the quarterly preeting of the keyboard section, with Mrs. Purdy and association last Sunday Secretary-their son, left Monday for an auto- Treasurer Brockwell announced that Philadelphia. Also in connection with the membership benefits it was an-nounced that the ticket to Los Angeles, Cal was awarded to Richard B. Glen of the document (hand) section the round-trip ticket to Philadeland hotel expenses during the rinters' base ball tournament was warded to James T. Casebeer of The

Guy E. Partridge of the document

I C Lesher, officeman in the office of he assistant foreman of printing, has been granted three weeks' leave of aband is visiting relatives in Ver-

It has been reported that Robert Morse of the press division is quite and returned to Washington. ill with typhoid fever.

a two-week vacation at At-

C. A. Bladen has been on the sick re

Mrs. Callie Jacoby of the document apolis, Ind., for a three-week visit. Horatio Barnum of the specifications division, who has been granted three weeks' leave of absence, is visiting in force of the proofroom spent the past week at Gettysburg, Pa., and vicinity

W. T. ("Mike") Halloran of the docu is home for ment (hand) section is enjoying a two-account of week vacation in Maryland.

> Mrs. Spence have returned from a twothe week outing in Atlantic City. Edward A. Huse of the specifications Piney Point, Md. John M. Thorne of the sanitary sec enjoying part of his annual

Conv Editor Frank A. Kidd began

Mrs. Bush and the children accon

Edwin L. Davis of the monotoype key-board room and Mrs. Davis left yester-day for points in Ohio, where they will Brooke Hunter, jr., probationary mesconductor, and Miss Mary les, press feeder, resigned. Mantz, helper, $750 per annum, to

DEPT. OF COMMERCE.

to go to Chicago to direct the investigation into the capsizing of the vising Inspector General Uhler and As Henry M. Webb of the linotype section has been absent the past week, Hoover of the steamboat inspection

Harry G. Olsen, acting private sec-etary to Secretary Redfield, also went to Chicago. C. C. Weidemann of the chief clerk's office left for his vacation July 20, going to Atlantic City by automobile. He

G. Fred Thompson of the chief clerk's office returned to his desk last Monday three weeks spent at Garrett

E. W. Libbey of the chief clerk's ffice and his family helped make up the crowd at Chesapeake Beach Wed-sion of Kallipolis Grotto. L. M. Lynch, telegraph operator, re-

T. R. Stewart of the chief clerk's office and star outfielder of the Commerce base ball team, is enjoying tw enjoying two weeks at Piney Point, Md. Miss Myrtle N. Halterman of the an-Clarion C. Gray of Iowa has been appointed clerk at $900 per annum in the bureau of the census and assigned clerk, and has recently been employed in the Philippine service.

of manufactures has completed his be act field work in Ohio and has returned to ment. National Washington.

and George M. Graffam, who are now in New England, have recently completed the collection of statistics of have gone to other cities. Mr. Graffam in Augusta, Me.

Misses Bess Melton and Mary the division of manufactures have fin ished their work in the Philadelphia office of that division and have returned to Washington.

liams of the division of statistics of cities have completed their field work in Indiana and have gone to cities in other states—Mr. Brinton to Omaha, Neb., and Mr. Williams to Decatur, Ill division of manufactures for some time past, has completed her work there collection of statistics of municipal finance in East St. Louis, Ill., and has gone to Springfield, Mo. Frederick J. Wildman has finished desk in the proofroom Monday, after a month's vacation spent with relatives in New York state. His family will remain there for the Wichita, Kan., and has gone to To-peka to obtain financial statistics for factures has returned to Washington after completing his field work in Mis-

Grover C. Kirley has enished collecting statistics of municipal finance at sissippi, Louisiana and Kentucky. Carlisle Crosland, who has been collecting municipal statistics at Charles-ton, S. C., has finished his work there trip to Gettysburg the first part of last and has gone to Columbia, S. C. Dr. Edward Ewing Pratt, chief of the Word has been received at the li bureau of foreign and domestic com-merce, spent a short vacation in Manchester, Vt., whence he went Manchester, Vt., whence he went to Omaha, St. Joseph and Kansas City. Manchester, Vt., whence he went to Omaha, St. Joseph and Kansas City.

William H. Turner was absent from He will, however, return to Washing- there today for Atlantic City, where Blue Ridge mountains, concerning his activities by a series of duty in the electrical section during ton tomorrow on account of urgent business connected with the depart-to the position of special agent to in-vestigate markets for fruits in South fornia, Oregon, Washington, New York trade in fruits before his departure for division has gone to his old home. Bos> een appointed commercial agent to infrom a week's outing at instructed to visit wearing apparel exporters in Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and Indiana.

markets for hardware, and who is now markets for hardware, and hardware, and hardware hardware, and hardware hardware hardware hardware, and hardware and displaying his hardware samples.

ouis, Memphis, Aberdeen, Mississippi Birmingham, Atlanta, Savannah. Jack-sonville, Tampa and Key West, for the interested in trade in Central annual leave. He will take an extend-Cleveland. Columbus. lincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago, for ness men interested in the machinery trade of South America, to which gation within a short time.

Stanley D. Winderman, special agent New Jersey and Connecticut.

of commerce, on the expiration of his

has been ordered to Los Angeles for of a co-operative branch in that city.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION.

sistant secretary's office, has been granted two weeks' leave and has gone days. to Atlantic City to spend her vaca-nology, will return to the museum to-morrow from California, where he had the library, in place of Miss Sarah E.

Harry Dorsey, chief clerk of the Smithsonian Institution, returned to his desk last Thursday from a fishing

G. de S. Canavarro, assistant curator of the section of wood technology, is performing the duties of Frederick L. Lewton, curator of textiles, during his Mr. Lewton is doing official

Frank E. Gass of the international exchange service, accompanied by his wife and son, left the Smithsonian last Beach. Mrs. H. B. S. Shuman of the division f mechanical technology has returned to the office from several days'

Miss A. V. Cooney, employed in the di vision of mineral technology, leaves tomorrow for a trip to Atlantic City.

Dr. I Walter Fewkes, ethnologist of the bureau of American ethnology, left the office yesterday to head an expedi-tion to Mosa Verde, southern Califor-Dr Fewkes will supervise the excavation and repair of prehistoric ruins leave of absence. near Cliff Palace and Spruce Tree

James G. Gidley, assistant curator in cation with her parents at Beaver, the section of vertebrate paleontology of the United States National Museum, will leave about the first of September for Winamac, Ind., to complete the ex-humation of the mastodon skeleton recently discovered there.

> Merrill, head curator of the department of geology, Dr. R. S. Bassler, curator of the division, paleontology, will be acting head curator of the depart-

R. A. Allen of the department of anten days' vacation.

William F. Goldsborough of the dileave for a few days last week. Harry N. Weigandt of the division of the bureau of crop estimates, spent fishes will be on leave for the next few

Samuel Harwitz, messenger boy in leave for three weeks. Miss Nellie G. Morrison of the depart ment of anthropology left Friday for ten days' vacation. Miss Mary G. Young of the assistant ional herbarium went on leave July 26. William J. Friedrich of this city was the National Museum.

messenger boy in the exchange bureau. granted thirteen days' leave.

ditor's office of the bureau of animal go on leave August 2. industry, left Monday for a thirty-day eturned to the library after a week's leave of absence spent at Ocean City, where several members of his family are spending their vacation.

CONGRESSIONAL LIBRARY.

brary from James H. Brodnax, chief of the printing division, that he and Fred C. Chase of the printing divi-sion returned to the library July 23 brary tomorrow morning. He has been 1st Battery, N. G. D. C., for the past a week's vacation spent with friends near Braddock Heights, Md.

Charles B. Titlow, chief engineer of the library, returned to work last week from a three-day fishing trip at Back River, Md.

morrow for Colonial Beach, where he

Hugh Reid, reviser in the printing dale League, and his efforts have been fourth place in the clubs' standing. Stanley R. Gilbert, linotype operator Tampa and Key West, for the in the printing division, left the li-of conferring with business brary last Thursday for thirty days > ment leaves the library tomorrow for gineer force at the library, will return to his duties tomorrow from Buffalo.

. Y., where he has been visiting rela

William Lott of the watch force at library has been granted thirty days' leave.

watch force, is enjoying two weeks of V. H. Hagan of the disbursing office has been suffering from that the change of climate will do much W. C. Skelly, assistant chief of the Ellwood G. Babbitt, commercial agent mail division, has been absent from charge of the San Francisco office, the library during the past week on account of sickness.

> B. A. Nolan, assistant in the same division, was also on the sick list last

Miss Eunice F. Hartley, on the bindery force at the library, left the building last Tuesday for Portsmouth, Va., to printing division, will leave the library geology, has left the office for a month's who is to celebrate her eightieth birth of absence, which will be spent day annversary the early part of this Adelbert E. Cumming, Montana, United ployed in the dead letter division, is on charge of the exhibit given by the Moyer, who is visiting relatives in Har-

Esau Beall of the bindery was off dut few days during the past week, suffering from slight indisposition. Miss Lucy A. Tune of the manuscript division is still absent from the librar; on account of illness of her mother.

Beginning tomorrow David F O'Brie of the bindery force will take six weeks leave. Mr. O'Brien will take an extended triy to Lake Placid and Raquet, returning by the way of Sara toga and New York city.

O. M. Haas of the watch force at the library is taking thirty days of his annual leave. He left the building last Monday.

Edwin R. Walters of the bindery will leave the library tomorrow for two William Boulder will return to the engineer department at the library today from thirty days' annual leave spent at Philadelphia and Atlantic Timothy Mangan of the same depart ment will report for work at the library tomorrow morning, after two weeks

AGRICULTURAL DEPT.

clerk of the bureau of crop estimates is away on annual leave of absence vis-iting in Ohio. He will return to the department August 6.

James G. Shibley, executive officer of the insecticide and fungicide board, who recently took his family to Wildwood, N. J., heard the wild waves calling him again, and left Tuesday for the shore, where he will stay until August 1.

Miss E. G. Latham of the bureau of crop estimates, who has been ill more than a month, returned to duty

Charles E. Gage, assistant chief clerk

Edward Crane, assistant chief of the division of crop reports, is making an inspection tour of the middle west.

Tomorrow the department will issue its monthly report on the condition of cotton throughout the country. B. B. Hare of South Carolina, a special agent of the department will be in Washi

The department has not yet found a A. A. Hare. It has in its employ B. B. Hare and C. C. Hare, but A. A. has yet to be found. Officials are on the look out for him and if he qualifies in other respects he may yet make the A, B, C of the departmental Hares complete. A Montana correspondent of the de partment writes in that the state has good prospects for all crops this season, after four bad years. C. C. Claycomb of the bureau of cr. estimates has returned to the depart ment from Texas, where he was called by the illness of his brother. Miss Edith Gardner, a clerk in trip and stay in Nova Scotia Miss Gussie Avlward of the divisio f publications was away several days Edward Cissell of the division of pul lications was on the sick list during the publications returned to the office Wed Mrs. Ella Bryan of the bindery, with nesday after a two-week vacation spent Fritz Schwertner of the division publications left the office during the week to spend ten days camping.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

gineers, has resumed his duties in the office of the chief of engineers at the War Department after an absence of about a month, part of which time he spent in the lower Mississippi valley

Morris Parker, a clerk in the of the chief of engineers, has returned to this city from a visit to Boston and other cities in Massachusetts.

Capt. Frank E. Bamford, 28th Infan

, is visiting friends at 1422 21st Mai. J. C. Gilmore, ir., of the Coast

Artillery Corps, stationed at Fort Miley, cal., is visiting his parents at the Portand on leave of absence. First Lieut. Fred P. Cruse of the 5th Field Artillery at Fort Sill, Okla., is at the Rochambeau on leave of ab-acquaintances at the department annual vacation. last week.

desk in the disbursing office last Mon-day after a prolonged absence on account of illness. James W. Pace of the supply division s on leave of absence.

Lewis Pinner of the mail and record division has been transferred to the The funeral of David Cranmer, for more than fifty years an employe of the War Department, was held Wed-nesday. Interment was in Arlington.

Edward Duffy of the appointment livision is spending his vacation in Adolph Sandberg of the adjutant gen-

INTERIOR DEPARTMENT.

The following changes in the person nel of the Department of the Interior were announced:

Massachusetts, copyist, $720; John W. Ringwald, Indiana, skilled laborer, $660. Indian office-Albert H. Reeves. Kansas, clerk, $900. Geological survey -Edward Federici, District of Columactually employed; Walter M. Luber District of Columbia, apprentice, 75 cents per diem, when actually employed. Temporary appointments: General land office—Frank W. Chapin, Montana, transitman, $100 per month; Claude F. Warner, Montana, transitman, $100 per Minor, District of Columbia, unskilled Leo J. Foley, California, timber cruismonth.

States surveyor, $150 per month; Clarence J. Ruppert, District of Columbia, Mrs. J. S. Tyler was detailed last messenger boy, $420.

NAVY DEPARTMENT.

Secretary Daniels has returned here from a short vacation at Morehead, He and the members of his family had good luck in fishing.

Assistant Secretary F. D. Roosevelt recuperating from an operation for ppendicitis at his summer cottage at street awaiting orders to duty.

Ensign R. A. Lavender of the Birmingham is visiting friends at 3409 Newark street. Lieut. Commander W. M. Hunt, stationed at the Philadelphia navy yard, is at the Army and Navy Club on leave Lieut, George M. Baum of the Conis at 1884 Columbia road on eave of absence.

on duty at the Naval Academy, have een at the Army and Navy Club on Cato B. Hurd has resigned his clerkship in the office of the Secretary of the Navy to accept a position in the Lieuts. H. T. Smith and Jules James,

Charles Plozet of the appointment f the Maryland National Guard, near Harry Lentz of the appointment di-vision attended the "grotto" at Chesapeake Beach last week. Frank S. Ray, stenographer in the F. J. McCabe, stenographer in same bureau, has been transferred to the Boston navy yard.

Carl Weller of the bureau of ord-

George H. Powell of Illinois has been appointed a clerk in the bureau of Lieut, H. F. Leary has returned to his vacation in Jamestown, R. I.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

ton is left all alone as the administra tive representative of the Treasury Department. Assistant Secretary William R. Malburn, the last associate on the job, has fled from official business, seeking rest and recreation at Rye Beach, N. H. Secretary William G. Mc-Adoo, anxious to come back after his serious physical condition of a few months back, is at North Beach, Me. Next door to him is Assistant Secretary Andrew J. Peters. Acting Secretary Newton is on the job all the time. But even he is thinking of a trip to Hawaii.

Miss Ethel M. Dykes has received ap pointment on the regular roll of the in-ternal revenue bureau. She has been ssigned to duty in the corporation and E. H. Gillman, confidential clerk to ssistant Secretary Peters, is on his vay to the Pacific coast as a member of the efficiency board of the division. The efficiency board, taking advantage of cheap railroad rates, prooses to make inspection of the of the Pacific coast. Mr. Gillman's fam-lly is at Willoughby Spit, Va., opposite Old Point, guests of Collector Norman Hamilton of the port of Norfolk. Mr. week.

division, is taking a two-week v tion. He is at Virginia Beach, Va.

H. C. Getchell, clerk in the customs clerk is at Ocean City, Md., for a fort-

E. P. Harrington, law and clerk, has gone to the Pacific coast as lumbus and will take in the exposition while on the coast.

the Potomac on his launch Truant.

P. V. Dolan's broken leg is rapidly mending. It is expected he will at an early date resume his duties in the Lewis W. Haskell, consul at Belgrade,

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

vacation extending until August 14.

ment division was away from consular bureau are spending their annual appointment division and for the past desk in the division of rural mails yes year connected with the City National terday, and will not return to office desk in the division of rural mails ves-August 16, as she is taking her

C. W. Calvine left last week on his Dunbar Williamson returned to this annual vacation. He is to return to desk in the disbursing office last Monduty in the postal savings system August 16.

> O I. Waters of the same departmen over August 14. Edward H. Patterson, chief of the division of printing, was away from of-fice during the past week on his an-He is to return to duty after August 24.

der division went on her annual vaca- about August 20.

G. E. Husley, electrician of the depast week, and will be away wo weeks longer.

tion yesterday. She will be away two

Miss Clara H. Jones of the division of supplies left on her annual vacation yesterday and will be away from of-fice for the next two weeks. Miss Kate Saxton of the money der division is on a vacation of two weeks. Her leave starts tomorrow.

Miss H. E. Henry of the miscellaneous transportation division started on vacation last Tuesday, and will way until next Monday.

of railway mails was away from office prefers to work than loaf. He spends during the past week and will not remost of his leisure hours writing short turn until August 9. S. E. Sullivan, assistant superintendvision left Friday on a vacation extending over August 7. derson, is spending the week end fish-ing at Benedict, Md. E B Crawford of the division of rail vacation extending over August 21.

Miss Lillian E. Brown, who is em vacation of three meeks. A. B. Caruthers of the finance divi s to return to duty after August 21.

Norman R. T. Raymond of the postal vacation, and will not return to duty in he rural mails division until August 18 William A. Fawkes of the postal say ings system left last week on his va-tion, which extends over August 17. Miss Lillian V. Smith, telephone clerk in the department, has gone tion of three weeks. She left Wednesday. W. H. Pierson of the postal savings Haines and J. M. Faulconer. three-week vacation.

John T. Quinn of the division of sala ries and allowances left yesterday on his annual vacation. He will be away from office for three weeks. Miss H. M. Brown of the division of

L. A. Delano of the disbursing office left Saturday on a vacation extending over August 23. Henry J. Ribatski of the postal sav-

on a vacation extending over three

August 24. Miss Rosalie Levy of the office of postmaster appointments is to leave on her vacation tomorrow. She is to be way from office until after August ings system is to leave tomorrow on his annual vacation extending over

A. E. O'Leary of the postal savings system, who goes on his vacation to-morrow, is not to return to duty until H. R. Nichol of the rural mails 'di vision has returned from a vacation

George J. Schoneman of the office the Postmaster General left yesterday or a month's vacation. Wayne Graham of the chief inspec office leaves tomorrow on a vacation extending through the Miss Annie J. Sweeney of the division of railway adjustments is to leave to-morrow on a vacation extending morrow on a vacation through the entire month. Miss Antoinette Peterson of the vacation. L. Nelson of the chief inspector office leaves tomorrow on his annua vacation extending through the month

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

ment, resigned from the service July 25 Paul S. Reinsch, United States minister to China, who is in this country on leave, was in conference with officials of the State Department last week preparatory to returning to his post. He will sail from San Francisco August Raymond Baker, private secretary to this country and has gone to his way back to Petrograd by way of the Siberian route. E. C. Sweet, confidential secretary to he Secretary of State, has resumed his visit to San Francisco.

United States Ambassador Marye at Petograd, has completed two months leave

Wilbur J. Carr, director of the consular service, has gone to New York city on Dr. Carlos M. de Cespedes, the Cubat minister here, is interested in having his government build a permanent legation in this city and has forwarded tentative ans for a sultable building. The site lected has not been announced. The Cuban legation now is located at 1529 Frank Davis of this city has been appointed a clerk at the United States em-basey at Vienna and has sailed for his Since graduation he has been W. H. Womersley has been absent on secretary to Howard Reeside and es consul at Berne, Switzerland, is in city receiving instructions prepara-ast week on his way to his home in Servia, is in this city on his way lumbia, S. C., to spend his leave.

rtagena, is here on his way to his he

John D. Johnson of the consular buau is making an automobile trip to Swanton, Vt.

vacation in this city and vicinity. DISTRICT BUILDING.

J. L. Mitchell and D. S. Waters of the

the board of Commissioners until the Mrs. L. R. Anderson of the money or- return of Mr. Brownlow and Maj. Kutz > Melvin C. Hazen, surveyor, who is president of the Manassas, Va., horse show, directed this annual event at Manassas Wednesday and Thursday. The show was pronounced one of the was among the Washingtonians who Miss Irene Madigan, one of the operators at the District telephone switch-board, is spending a two-week vacation on the eastern shore of Maryland.

railway mails left the department Friday afternoon on his annual vacation, in Caldwell, N. Y. He expects to be most of his leisure hours writing short magazine stories and has been successful in having a number of them accent ent of the postmaster appointments di Assistant Engineer Commissioner

> Frank Meyers of the cut department. engineering division, motored to Rock Point, Md., where he will spend several days fishing W. J. Forsythe of the surface division has returned to the office after He a short illness.

given at his home, Lanham, Md., yes Among his other terday. Handy of this city. Benjamin A. Harlan, chief clerk of ained several journey home.

puter of the surface division, enter-

Asbury Park, N. J., enjoying a two-The water department is represented among the Washingtonians who are week-ending at Chesapeake Beach. The representatives are from the drafting force and include F. B. Proctor, G. L. Arthur Israel, clerk in the public utilities commission, was on leave the latter part of the week.

S. H. Harding of the water depart

GOVERNMENT HOSPITAL. Dr. P. J. Murphy of the staff at the Government Hospital returned last Monday from Colonial Beach, where west side receiving service, is pre-paring to leave for Colonial Beach on a fishing trip. He also will spend a few weeks at Virginia Beach. Chief Clerk Frank J. Finnotti will leave the hospital early this month for Ocean View, where he and his family will spend two or three weeks' va

Dr. and Mrs. James H. Hassall have

Miss Mary O'Leary, assistant matron in the storekeeper's department at the institution, was away last week for several days, visiting friends in this Daniel J. Sullivan, chef at the hospital, is contemplating a two-week trip to Utica, N. Y., early this month.

pitching staff of the hospital club, is ington base ball team. Russel A. Durrer of the District of Columbia was appointed as attendant at the hospital July 26 and detailed to the

Miss Mary J. Thompson of Maryland also was appointed as attendant at the asylum July 26. She will perform her duties in the female service Miss Mamie C. Jones of Maryland, as the female department at the asylum, was married recently to James J. Coppage died in Providence Hospital July 26.

sistant supervisor of the female west side receiving service.

of the staff at the hospital, took a trip duties at the department after a long to Benedict, Md., last week and returne > gust 9. Miss Amelia Cooksey, employed in the dministrative department at the hospital paid a visit to her relatives in Virginia several days last week

> Other Departmental News on Last Page of This Section.

Miss Pearl E. Sailer of the receiving service will resign from the service Au-

Mrs John Russell Williams, mother of Garnett M. Williams, civil service cle at the hospital, is visiting her sister in returned from a motor trip through New York state and Massachusetts.